FOREWORD 前言

Dear friends and collectors,

Greetings from The Singapore Mint!

We are fast approaching the last months of 2022 and will soon bid the Year of the Tiger goodbye, so let us look forward to welcoming a bright and hopeful Year of the Rabbit in 2023.

The quick-witted and lively Rabbit ranks fourth in the 12-year cycle of animals in the Chinese Zodiac, and in 2023, the Year of the Rabbit with the water element will bring about a year of peace, tranquillity, and good tidings.

As we eagerly anticipate the arrival of the new year, The Singapore Mint is delighted to share with you a myriad of festive new collections to ring in the Lunar New Year!

Issued by the Monetary Authority of Singapore as part of the Singapore Fourth Chinese Almanac Coin Series (2017 – 2028), this year's coins feature the Rabbit against the backdrop of East Coast Park, one of Singapore's most treasured urban getaways.

The Singapore Mint takes pride in being the official minting and marketing agent for both Bhutan and Macau Lunar Coin Series.

In the eighth issue of the Bhutan Lunar Coin Series – the Bhutan Lunar Rabbit Coin features the blissful rabbit, adorned with big cloud swirls and leaves depicting the rabbit's joyous adventures in Bhutan's vast plains and forests, sharing its blessings of good fortune with everyone.

Exclusively minted and marketed by The Singapore Mint, the Macau Lunar Rabbit coins are the 4th issue of the 2020-2031 Macau Lunar Coin Series which features the lively tamed rabbit, portrayed with vibrant display of pink coloured Portuguese-inspired patterned tiles. The reverse design of the coins features the Old City Walls, located within the Historic Centre of Macau, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Our latest Sanrio Lunar Collection features Hello Kitty dressed to the nines to usher in the brand new year! Joining in on the festivities are her close friends Dear Daniel, My Melody and the Little Twin Stars, who have all donned on traditional Chinese New Year outfits as part of Chinese customs for the Lunar New Year to symbolise a new start for the new year and to bring festive cheer.

With an abundance of delightful new festive coins, gifts, collectibles, and promotions lined-up, there is something special for everyone! Stay updated with the latest news available on our website and social media pages.

We thank you for your continuous support over the years.

On behalf of the management and staff of The Singapore Mint, I wish you and your loved ones a brilliant Year of the Rabbit.

Yip Pak Ling
Mint Director

THE SINGAPORE MINT LUNAR RABBIT MEDALLIONS 新加坡造币厂生肖兔纪念章

The Singapore Mint Lunar Rabbit Medallion features a pair of rabbits surrounded by fresh blooms of Pink Cyclamens. Due to its resemblance to rabbit ears when blooming, Cyclamens are nicknamed as “兔耳花” in Chinese which directly translates to “rabbit ears flower”. In Chinese culture, rabbits are auspicious animals that symbolize intelligence, compassion, and fertility.

Accompanied by radishes in the background, radish is pronounced as “菜头(cai tao)” in the Hokkien dialect which sounds like “彩头”, meaning good luck. Having radishes during the lunar new year marks a good start for the year.

The reverse side of the medallion features “吉祥”, sending auspicious blessings to everyone in the new year.

新加坡造币厂生肖兔纪念章呈现一对可爱的兔子与鲜艳的粉红仙客来花。盛开的仙客来，因花形像极兔耳，所以昵称为“兔耳花”。在中华文化中，兔子代表聪明才智、仁爱慈善和人丁兴旺，被誉为吉祥的动物。

纪念章的正反面由许多萝卜组成，萝卜的福建话发音为“菜头(cai tao)”，听似“彩头”。在新年期间吃萝卜讨个好彩头，迎接新的一年美好的开始。

纪念章背面刻有“吉祥”，祝愿大家在新的年里吉祥如意，大吉大利！
